On-site Activities:

Friday, July 22, 2022, 7 pm-9 pm

Family Meet and Greet and gathering at Big D's Suber Soul Food Restaurant, 411 7th Ave. E., Hendersonville. Cost: $20. (Payment by cash, Venmo or CashApp.) In addition to having a delectable dinner buffet, we will have several icebreakers, and a review of what will take place on Saturday and Sunday.

Since Hendersonville is a tourist town, if you arrive early, you may want to ride around to take in some of the sights, i.e., Laurel Park, Jump Off Rock (scenic views of the Blue Ridge Mtns, and several hiking trails), Historic Marker at 6th Avenue and Valley Street (which includes information about our granddaddy Neill), and Oakdale Cemetery, to the West of the Marker. (Otis Sr. and Margaret Neill Cash, James, Sr. and Julia Neill Cash, and many more family members are buried there.) Down from the cemetery is a Middle School which was once Ninth Avenue School—grades 1-12. Black children from all around Hendersonville, Flat Rock, Tryon, Brevard (9-12th grades), Etowah, and Horseshoe were bussed to Ninth Avenue School. You may want to go down and see it. Also, you don't want to miss Looking Glass Falls, which is in the Brevard/Pisgah Forest area, on Highway 276. If you have a sweet tooth, go to McFarland's Bakery on Main Street in Hendersonville. In the good ol' days, doughnuts were 60 cents a dozen. The doughnuts, cinnamon buns, lemon squares, cookies and pies are still delicious.
